Alaska Miners Association Biennial Convention Banquet – Thursday, November 8, 2019
ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP AWARD

AMA’s Environmental Stewardship Award honors an active AMA member (whether an individual or organization) who demonstrates environmental leadership. This award will recognize best management practices in environmental protection or restoration associated with a mining operation or project. Demonstration of new approaches in design, construction, operation, or reclamation are encouraged.

Criteria:

- Current membership in the Alaska Miners Association
- Exemplary environmental practices
- Outstanding environmental enhancement efforts – including those outside of an actively mined area
- Demonstrated performance at a higher level than permit requirements
- Sound stewardship of Alaska’s environment

Each nomination should include at least one photo and a letter detailing the nominee’s contributions to Alaska’s mining industry that make them eligible for this award. Additional letters of support are encouraged. Consider including:

- A description of efforts or project(s) ensuring best management practices and environmental care.
- A description of innovative or out-of-the-box thinking that resulted in new environmental accomplishments for Alaska’s miners
- An account of how this design or practice resulted in environmental excellence, and the process involved.

Please limit submissions to fewer than 1,000 words. Submissions should be sent via email to Deantha@alaskaminers.org by close of business September 27, 2019. Applications will be reviewed by a five-person committee comprised of the AMA Board Officers, AMA Executive Director, and Convention Committee Chairmen. The winner will be announced at the banquet on November 8, 2019.
