ALASKA MINERS
ASSOCIATION

The Alaska Miners Association represents Alaska's mining industry and those who serve it. We are dedicated to responsible mineral development, educating the public about the value of mining, providing information for our membership and the general public, providing policymakers the information they need to understand the mining industry, and monitor political and regulatory processes affecting mining in Alaska.

MISSION OF OUR PUBLICATIONS

- To serve, inform and advocate for the people and organizations of the $3.4 billion a year mining industry in Alaska
- Expand communication with membership
- Communicate with Alaska stakeholders and leaders
- Tell the good news about mining in Alaska
- Provide marketing opportunities for mining and support industries

THE ALASKA MINER PUBLICATIONS

- The Alaska Miner Magazine – Statewide Premium Magazine published four times a year.
- The Alaska Miners Association Journal – Member-only news mailed to AMA members, eight times a year, in months when the Magazine is not published.
- The Alaska Mining Handbook & Service Directory – The Bible of Alaska Mining and Membership Directory of the Alaska Miners Association published annually each spring.
